Eric Theiss

Eric Theiss's culinary savoir-faire started in northern New Jersey as a child when his Italian mother gave him his first cook book at age 6. As a young adult, he worked at The Culinary Renaissance under the rigorous tutelage of acclaimed chef Frank Falcinelli. He opened his own fine dining restaurant and bar called Meritage in West Chester, PA and earned rave reviews from prominent Philadelphia food critics.

Theiss moved on to the culinary broadcast world, working in product development for not only major live shopping networks, but for major celebrity lines as well as his own personal line of cool kitchen tools and cookware, Walah! Theiss remains as a key industry talent and established a successful new publishing company that publishes cook books and pamphlets.

Apple Pie

Ingredients

5 cans apples
4 pie shells
¼ cup half and half

Preparation

1. Drape the pie shell on the bottom and sides of the Copper Chef pan leaving a large enough flap to cover the apples on top.
2. Pour the apples into the pie shell.
3. Cover the apples with the excess pie shell.
4. Brush the top of the pie with half and half.
5. Place the pan in the oven and cook for 45-60 minutes until the pie is golden.
6. Remove and let cool.
7. Serve.

Cherry Pie

Ingredients

- 5 cans cherry pie filling
- 4 pie shells
- ¼ cup half and half

Preparation

1. Preheat oven to 375 degrees.
2. Drape the pie shells on the bottom and sides of the Copper Chef pan leaving 1 pie shell to make the lattice top.
3. Pour the cherry pie filling into the pan.
4. Cut 1" strips out of the remaining pie crusts and make a lattice top.
5. Brush the top of the pie with half and half.
6. Place the pan in the oven and cook for 45-60 minutes until the pie is golden.
7. Remove and let cool.
8. Serve.
