Born & raised in India, I come with a lineage of over 90 years in the tea industry. We started VAHDAM®, with a mission to make available India's finest teas and spices packaged garden fresh at source and delivered to consumers worldwide without unnecessary middlemen.

Additionally, tea is among the largest employers of labour in India. With a home-grown brand, all profits are retained in the region, where these divine teas are nurtured by millions of growers with immense love, care & passion. A process which ultimately helps every farmer get a better price for their produce.

And, just in case you were wondering, 'VAHDAM' is the reverse anagram of my father's first name 'Madhav'.
